I did not hear from Blair, but yes, we are planning to be there at approximately 2:15. I will call you on your cell with a more precise ETA en route.

Hey Elan,

I'm pretty sure Blair followed up with you about this, but we look forward to seeing you today. Confirming you're still planning on stopping by around 2:15?

Blair,

As part of the launch of our Innovate DTLA initiative next week, we are conducting a tour of Downtown for Bruce Katz and Andy Altman from the Brookings Institution and Fred Kent from Project for Public Spaces on Tuesday June 21st (bios attached). As part of the tour we would like to include a stop at the Historic Core BID so that you can talk about the area and your work. From there, we will be continuing down Spring, likely on foot, all the way down to Broadway and Olympic, so this would be a great opportunity to introduce the district to them. If you wish, you can join us for that portion of the tour.

We expect to arrive at approximately 2:15 and would like to stay on site for only about 5-10 minutes.

Let me know if this will work for you. Feel free to call or email me to discuss or if you have any questions.

Regards,
